

Save Big This Holiday Season with First Data's Employee Discount Program!

With the Holiday Season fast approaching, First Data would like to remind employees of the great savings opportunities available through the Employee Discount Program.

Need to get presents for family and friends? Need to find that perfect gift for your boss or co-worker? Make sure you shop through the First Data Employee Discount Program and save big on your favorite brands at online retailers.

Look for the Holiday Fair beginning in early December, featuring additional discounts on Apparel, Travel, Electronics, Toys and more. Check out the Exclusive Tab where you will find special First Data employee deals on cell phones and services from Sprint and others.

Check out the site now to see how you can save! Visit the First Data Benefits Web site at www.firstdatabenefits.us to learn more about the Employee Discount Program. From the home page select Financial Benefits, then Discount Programs to learn about plan specifics and to link to the discount site, or link directly to <http://firstdata.corporateperks.com> from any computer with internet access. Shop early and often to save big this holiday season.

If you have questions, please contact the Employee Resource Line at 888-348-4835 between the hours of 8-5, CST.
