

Your Benefits Resources™ (YBR) Enrollment Site Upgrade

The Your Benefits Resources (YBR) Web site for Health and Life benefits has a new look. Access the site via the “Enroll Here” link at www.firstdatabenefits.us to see what’s new.

With the Your Benefits Resources (YBR) Web site upgrade, it’s now even easier to make informed decisions when it comes to your benefit options. The new site features include:

- easy to follow subject tabs to quickly get you the information you need
- easy to access dependent information, with an edit feature which allows you to update dependent information (such as adding a newborns Social Security Number within 12 months of birth)
- streamlined processing for qualified status changes (such as adding a dependent as the result of a birth or marriage)
- design enhancements to assist with navigation

Log in today to become familiar with the site enhancements. Remember, this is the same site you’ll use for annual enrollment 2012 - Health and Life Benefits.
